EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 19

News from French Sources

TOURS, Oct. 18.—More favorable news are received from Paris. A bridge has been thrown across the Seine by which independent communication is established between Forts Charenton and Ivry. The Garde Mobile continue to make successful sorties. Reports from official and private sources state that bands of sharp shooters in all parts of the country occupied by the enemy are becoming more and more effective, and cause much annoyance and damage on the German lines of communication.

... states that the Francs Tireurs after a successful engagement ... Melun.

A private dispatch from Chateau Dun to-day reports that shells were thrown into town this afternoon.

A telegram from Dijon to-day announces that Vesoul is occupied by the Germans.

In the absence of any representative of the United States in Tours, the French Government requests the press to make known to the American Government and people its extreme desire to make a new postal treaty between the two nations, and that ... would be glad to receive a special envoy from Washington with whom negotiations might be conducted to that end.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Prussians attacked the unfortified town of Mont Didier. Three citizens were killed and 150 Mobile Garde made prisoners. A requisition for fifty thousand francs was levied on the town.

The Wurtemburg troops have been placed under command of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from Tours on the 17th: I have just returned from Blois. No engagement has taken place. The French are daily receiving reinforcements. A battle was expected on Tuesday on the left bank of the river near ... St. Aignan. Bourbaki arrived yesterday at Blois and took command of the army.

The Prussians have destroyed the railroad bridge at Beaugency, their left having crossed the Seine in several places.

General Boyer, with a flag of truce from Bazaine, had an interview with Bismarck, who reported the conversation to the King of Prussia. The result of the negotiations is not known.

Prussia Asks the Queen of England to Mediate

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Queen has been advised by the representatives from the Prussian Court to take an active part in urging the Ministers to securing a treaty of peace between France and Germany. The Crown Princess of Prussia has addressed a letter to her mother on the subject of the war which moved the Queen to insist on an interview with Earl Granville and ... on Saturday upon action being taken. The Prussian Minister at Brussels sent a dispatch yesterday to Count Bernstorff, which led him to-day to request an interview with the English Foreign Minister. Similar requests were addressed to Earl Granville by the representatives of France, Austria, Russia, Belgium and Holland. In response to these calls Granville to-day saw all the foreign representatives enumerated. It is understood that the French, Spanish and Dutch Ministers have united in protesting against any change in the existing territorial arrangements of France, Holland and Belgium.

MIDNIGHT.—Negotiations between Gen. Burnside and others have resulted in a total failure. The Foreign office was to-night informed of the failure and to abandon all hope of a settlement.

Military Movements

On Sunday a fresh attack was made on the German positions on the south of Paris, which were not carried. On the preceding day the Bavarians who still held Bagneux, Chevilly and ... were taken by surprise early in the morning by the National and Garde Mobile of Cote d'Or. The Bavarians fought stubbornly, and the action lasted until ... in the afternoon, but they were completely routed.

The French are actively throwing up earth works and constructing rifle pits in advance of forts Ivry and Charenton.

A series of encounters occurred on Sunday on the line to Rouen.

A Prussian column moving up the right bank of the Seine approached ... The town was occupied by the 94th regiment, which on the approach of the enemy crossed the river, blew up the bridge and fell back to ... The Prussians moved up the river to ... where they were furiously attacked and finally compelled to retreat in disorder to Aube Vern.

The battle of Bagneux resulted in such a severe loss that the Prussians asked six hours armistice to bury their dead.

Bismarck's proposals for peace through Burnside were the payment of an indemnity of eighty millions sterling, Alsace and Lorraine to be neutral territory for ten years and then to decide by plebiscite their future status, the Prussians to enter Paris and sign peace there. The Parisians indignantly refused these terms.

South America

LISBON, Oct. 18.—One day's later dates have been received from Rio Janeiro. General ... and Rivas were pursuing Lopez. The rebels under ... had been attacked and captured. The rebels were so demoralized that their early submission is anticipated. Montevideo was besieged by insurgents. The citizens are greatly alarmed.

Russia and the Treaty of Paris

From the New York Herald, Oct. 4.

The Eastern question ... an important telegram from St. Petersburg ... that the new papers ... urging a settlement of the question which led to the Crimean war and the abrogation of the treaty of Paris which resulted from it. The same telegram adds that, according to the diplomatists, Gortschakoff is bent upon speedily upsetting that treaty, and that this ... been peaceably determined upon by him and Bismarck. ... of the Russian Government ... the splendid opportunity ... BEFORE SEDAN, Sept. 1, 1870. WILLIAM.

The Russian Geographical Society, with the assistance of the Department of War, has dispatched an expedition for the exploration of southern Mongolia. The expedition will be absent three years, and is instructed to pass next winter in Pekin, and in the spring will proceed toward Russian Turkestan, traveling through the Chinese parts of Central Asia which have not been visited by Europeans since Marco Polo and his uncle were guests of Kublai Khan from 1261 to 1295.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

No English Guns for Prussia

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The report that the ... Government had advanced money to English gun manufacturers, is pronounced false and an invention of the French designed to weaken Prussia's protest against arming of new French armies by pretended neutrals.

Strength of the German Armies in France and at Home

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A special correspondent at Ostend sends from a diplomatic foreign source at Belgium, the following authentic statement of the actual numbers of German forces available for war in France. The entire strength of the German armies now in France, including all reinforcements sent forward up to Oct. 10th, amounts to 650,000 men. Of these there were actually fit for duty at that date 520,000 men. These are divided into thirteen army corps, including the so-called Silesian corps, one bas... army corps, two Bavarian army corps, one Wurtemburg division and one Baden division, united under one corps commander, and seven landwehr divisions. There remain in the whole of Germany, actually under arms and available to replace the losses of the armies in France, to do police and guard duty, and maintain order throughout the country, no more than 250,000 men.

Strength of the French Armies.

A special from Bologne sends the official statements from Lille, Rouen, Tours and Lyons of the actual force now in the field to resist invasion. ... of 4... 000 men within the ... of Paris, of 91,000, for the most part regular troops, with Bazaine at Metz and Thionville, and 1... 000 regular troops outside of Paris and Metz. Besides these the Government has distributed arms to 852,000 men throughout the Provinces.

Gen Bourbaki takes Command.

Bourbaki, who is in full possession of the plans and intentions of Marshal Bazaine and of Gen. Trochu, has been appointed commander of all the forces in Northwestern France not under Marshal Bazaine, and he has left Tours for Lille to take command of his troops. He expresses the firmest confidence in the ability of the French armies to assume the offensive on a general scale within a very few weeks, and the inevitable defeat if not destruction of the German armies in France.

Flight of a French Army Corps

VERSAILLES, Oct. 18—via Berlin and London, Oct. 19.—Official advices from Epinal announce the fact that a new French army corps, which arrived there a few days ago, has fled. Some of the troops went to Belfort, but the greater part went toward Dijon by rail.

The Prussians occupy Vesoul, the Capital of the Department of Haute Saone, twenty seven miles from Besancon.

TOURS, Oct. 19.—Melun was occupied by the Francs Tireurs on the 17th, after defeating a Prussian detachment who was in possession of the town.

Prussian Exactions

The Prussians have exacted heavy contributions from Charmes-Sur-Moselle, Department of Vosges, near Epinal, and are threatening towns with destruction in case of refusal.

Large bodies of troops continue to pass through Tours from the South of France on their way to the scene of an expected battle on the Loire.

The Prussians are still encamped at Ballaire between Mury and Stoye.

General News

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Vienna correspondent of the ... says it is generally believed that Prussia would now gladly accept any intervention which would tend to relieve her from a winter campaign. Prussia has encountered immense difficulties in providing clothing, shelter and supplies, and much stress is laid on Bismarck's repudiation of the crime of prosecuting the war. Now, it is said, Thiers never asked neutral Powers for any intervention further than was necessary to sustain some form of government in France.

No Bombardment for a Fortnight

Correspondents at Versailles are unanimous in the belief that the general bombardment will not be opened for at least a fortnight, or until every gun is in position.

French Defeated at Orleans.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The expected battle at Orleans has occurred. After a six hours' defense of the city the French fled. They evacuated the town so precipitately that they had not time to blow up the bridges over the Loire which they had already mined. The forces engaged were about equal. No further particulars have been received.

At Etival yesterday, a force of 3,800 Germans encountered 8,000 French, mostly Mobiles. After a short combat the French were defeated and driven off.

The Germans are now fed from the supplies captured from the French in Normandy and at Orleans. Railroad communication to the Rhine is fully restored. Provisions are coming forward from Germany.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The army of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin, 22,000 strong, entered Soissons on Sunday. 50,000 rounds of ... ammunition was found. The bombardment lasted four days as before reported. Much surprise was expressed that no more vigorous defense was made. It is said the people of the city insisted on capitulation. At Lille it is thought the surrender is due to treachery, and was brought about by Bonapartists, who are known to be scheming with allies in the interest of the island of Jersey and London. The plan of the Bonapartists is to place the Prince Imperial on the throne with the Empress Eugenie as regent.

On Friday the 14th the Parisians made another sortie with several battalions. They were repulsed, and the French entrenching party at Villejuif was driven into the city.

Five hundred French prisoners, Guards Mobile, escaped from the Germans on the 16th near Chateau Thierry during an attack made by the Francs Tireurs.

TOURS, Oct. 19.—The following is published by the Minister of War:

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Chateau Dun was captured by the Prussians last night after a siege lasting from noon till ten o'clock at night. It was defended by troops of the National Guard and 900 Francs Tireurs, who retired, disputing every foot of ground. The Prussian force was 5,000 strong and well supplied with artillery.

Official news from the two large armies confronting each other near Orleans says that the French are slowly falling back. The Prussians are returning towards Orleans.

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER [illegible] 1870

A Falsehood to Cover a Partisan Measure

The pretense on which Portland is deprived of her right of local self government is at once a slander and a silly lie. It is the pretense that crime has long been permitted to stalk with bold defiance and without fear of punishment through our streets; that late handed robberies are of daily and nightly occurrance, and that no attempt is made to bring the perpetrators to justice; that murders follow each other with appalling frequency, that no person who walks our streets is sure of his life, and that this reign of outrage, violence and murder is encouraged by the city government created by the people, or at least permitted and allowed to go unchecked by that government. Hence the power of the State is invoked to put a stop to a "reign of terror" in Portland and to quell the "pandemonium" alleged to be existing here.

All this, extravagant as it is and without semblance of truth as all the people of Oregon know it to be, is in substance alleged to justify the Legislature for doing an act which is so clearly partisan in its conception, so purely partisan in its incubation and so grossly partisan in its final conception as to be seen in its real form from one end of the State to the other. Even those who have advocated the measure and now try to defend it cannot look an honest man in the face and repeat the vile slander and silly lie by which they have feebly assayed to justify it. Ever since the June election, when this city and county gave so large a Republican majority, this thing has been resolved on, and not two days after election it was talked of currently on the streets of the city. Local Democratic politicians boasted that they could govern the city through the Legislature, if they could not do it by the suffrages of the people themselves. Had the advocates of the measure before the Legislature frankly avowed their object in making this change they would have avoided slandering as quiet and orderly a community as can be found in this State or any other and at the same time have saved themselves the disgrace (if indeed they can be disgraced) of untruths as gross as a mountain."

A Swindling "Lock Game"

Inasmuch as the Legislature has resolved that the educational lands of the State shall be diverted from their legitimate object and jobbed out among "rich corporations" and "grinding monopolies," why does it not relieve the worst features of the measure as far as possible by opening the enterprises which it is intended to aid to free competition. To put the question with more directness, why does it not provide that the subsidy for locks at the Wallamet falls which is to be obtained by stealing the school lands, shall go to the lowest responsible bidder? That would be some mitigation of the evils which is to be consummated. That, however, would not suit, because the Democratic Senator elect is member of the corporation which it is proposed to subsidize, and other "leading Democrats" are also in the job. In fact they completely control the corporation, and this is a scheme to put money in their pockets, at the expense of the educational interests of the State.

Nobody would object to a proposition to aid in a legitimate way this enterprise of a canal and locks at Wallamet falls. But when it comes to stealing the school lands even to promote a useful enterprise of internal improvement, the question at once takes new shape. Besides, are not the so-called Democracy on the record as the foes of all measures calculated to make a few men rich by great subsidies? Here they are, granting a very large subsidy, allowing the recipients thereof to dictate the terms and fix the amount, and refusing to permit any competition to diminish the profits of the job. To complete the whole picture it is only necessary to observe that this subsidy is drawn from the very last source from which such a subsidy should be drawn,—viz, the lands donated by the Government for the endowment and support of the common schools of Oregon.

Again, there is every reason to believe that this corporation will never construct the locks. Their probable motive is to speculate on the grant. Perhaps Col Kelly might sell his interest in it for enough to clear off his election expenses, pay the amount which it cost to support the one hundred and three Democratic "imports" in Yamhill and have a very fair margin left. It was the boast of the so-called Democracy that the present Legislature would legislate for the people. It is fulfilling its pledge by legislating for Democratic leaders and for the pets of the party.

Let the People Make an Apportionment

Can any one suppose that the majority in the Legislature would delay for one day a new apportionment, if they could see that their strength in the next Legislature would be increased or not impaired thereby? If this were the situation of affairs they would instantly see that the Constitution requires the apportionment to be made at once which they now put off on the pretense that the next Legislature is the proper one to make it. Indeed they have plainly said that they do not intend to have the people represented equally in the Legislature of 1872. The "preservation" of the Democratic party as Ben. Hayden intimates, is the first thing to be considered and a regard for its preservation will not allow a fair and equal representation. Nearly all the actual increase of population has taken place in Republican counties; therefore it will never do to make the new apportionment which the Constitution commands. Now since the Legislature refuses to obey the fundamental law of the State the people can and should obey and enforce it. To illustrate, Multnomah county is fairly entitled to an additional Senator and two additional Representatives in the next Assembly. Other Republican counties are entitled on their population to a corresponding increase of power in that body and several bankrupt, decaying and dwindling Democratic counties have far too much power there. Republicans in this and in other counties should and no doubt will elect the number of members for the next Legislature to which they are fairly entitled, then see that they get their seats and that the excessive representation of the oligarchs is kicked out. Let it be known henceforth that we are dealing with men who in political affairs have no fairness or honesty, who disregard the sanctity of oaths whenever such a course will secure them a partisan advantage and who can be met only by a course as bold (though not necessarily so unscrupulous and outrageous) as their own.

SNAGGING.—The Resolute towed the snag puller to the mouth of the Wallamet yesterday, where her services are required in the removal of a large fir tree, which has lodged directly in the channel.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT]

SALEM Tuesday Oct 18 1870

[illegible]

In the House this morning Mr Hare introduced a bill to apportion the Senators and Representatives among the several counties in accordance with the constitutional requirement, and based upon the census recently taken. Mr Helm, who pretends to be a lawyer, objected to the bill as not only unimportant but not required by the Constitution. He said he thought he understood the clause in the Constitution and that it meant that the apportionment should be made by the Legislature at the session next after the official promulgation of the census returns. The constitutional provision is as follows: "Sec 6 The number of Senators and Representatives shall at the session next following an enumeration of the inhabitants by the United States or this State be fixed by law and apportioned among the several counties, according to the number of white population in each." The enumeration was made in June July and August, and an abstract of the official returns has long since been on file in the office of the Secretary of State. Mr Helm said that we have no knowledge of the census and herein lies the little joke. The Secretary has the abstract but as per caucus arrangement it is withheld from official publication to give just such demagogues as constitute the majority of this Legislature a seeming excuse for refusing to make an apportionment. If Mr Helm's construction of the Constitution be the correct one, it is in the power of the Secretary to defeat an apportionment at the session of 1872, as it is not probable that the whole thing will be officially promulgated from the U. S. census bureau before that time. All the Secretary has to do is to hold it without publication and the demagogues may come in 1872, as well as now, and claim that the Constitutional provision does not yet operate because the census has not been officially announced. But the Constitution really says nothing at all about "official publication." It requires the apportionment to be made at the session next succeeding an enumeration. If the result of the census were not in the hands of the Secretary there would be some excuse for neglecting or refusing to make an apportionment. But as the Secretary has had it for some time, the refusal to act stands out as the high handed act of a partisan legislature in defiance of the plainest and most unmistakeable provision of the Constitution. Mr Hare's bill was laid on the table (dead) by a strict party vote.

IN BONDS

The committee appointed early in the session to investigate the charges of corruption in the Senatorial canvass, published by the Herald, have been in session at various times, and having authority to send for persons and papers (duces tecum) they have now in bonds, our editorial brother, Sylvester Pennoyer, he of the saw mill persuasion. The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate was sent for him yesterday and our unfortunate cotemporary arrived by this morning's "grinding monopoly" train. The committee is in session this evening, but I am utterly unable to tell you what course of sprouts they are putting the editorial prisoner through, or what will be the report of the committee. The probability is that both and all parties to the investigation will be whitewashed, fumigated and all things made lovely. Then all hands will fall upon each other's necks, forgive and be forgiven and wind up with a grand sortie upon Bacon's historic barrel of rot gut.

VIRTUOUS INDIGNATION

There was an interesting passage to-day between certain gentlemen on the Democratic side of the [illegible] one of [illegible] Cochran's [illegible] though a patient man, couldn't stand everything, and so his indignation got top of his patience. Then Cochran rose grandly indignant and reproved his tormentors, and in doing so incidentally tooted his own horn till I really began to be an ardent admirer of the gentleman from Lane. He evidently had the most unbounded respect for both his public and private character, and as I couldn't gainsay anything he said, I was constrained to agree with him. The honorable gentleman mentioned his political, public and private virtues in such exalted terms as excited within me the liveliest emotions of admiration and emulation. This thing went on till the balance of the Senate was in imminent danger of being overshadowed and made to appear of very microscopic dimensions, and it would have happened had not the gentleman from Grant rushed to the rescue. He rose grandly indignant too—as grandly as his calibre would allow—and defied any man to be more publicly and privately virtuous than he. The effect was electrical and the equilibrium of the Senate was instantly restored. "The war that for a space did thunder on the gale," (I am not quite sure that this quotation will be recognized) now subsided and business fell into the usual humdrum channels.

THE SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS

The House has all along had the reputation of being a slaughter-house (no pun intended), but the Senate inflamed by a noble emulation went to-day, into a general indiscriminate competitive slaughter—a slaughter which must forever redeem it from the imputation of being under the eclipse of the House. Bill after bill was taken up and indefinitely postponed, in some cases with such bloody thirsty haste as to give no time to read even the title. Now and then as the carnage went on, an occasional hoary headed victim was treated with respect enough to have leave to lie down on the table to die, but as a rule, the murderous blows fell quick, sure and savagely fatal. If the Senate get in such a mood for another hour the calendar will be cleared, and nothing will be left to do except bury the dead and adjourn sine die. It has been not an infrequent thing to see members move and vote to kill bills which they had themselves introduced. The fact is that floods of bills were poured in by men who had an itching to do something toward razing the work of the last few years, without knowing or reflecting exactly what they wanted to do. By the time the bill came to be acted upon finally, some new crotchet would be in the heads of the originators and they would be as ready as anybody else to stab to the death their own creations. It is fortunate however for the State that such whims and such murderous moods have come upon the Legislature, for really, there have been but very few measures introduced which would not have been, if passed, injurious to the public good.

THE OUTRAGE UPON PORTLAND CONSUMMATED

Stout's bill to make Gov Grover the Chief of Police of Portland, was passed in the House this evening, by a vote of 29 to 14—a strict party vote. And yet the Democratic solons have no partisan motives! oh, no! During the pending of the bill Mr Whalley offered the remonstrance of 627 citizens of Portland, very many of whom I know to be among the best business men of the city, and some of them Democrats. The remonstrance was treated with indignity. For this however, you business men and respectable citizens may thank the Democratic delegation now here from Portland, who had filled the ears of members with the statement that the remonstrance was signed principally by Republican roughs and bummers. If the insults offered here to the signers of that remonstrance do not stir the blood of the honorable men of Portland to an ample vengeance in future elections they deserve to remain where Stout's bill puts them—in the breeches pockets of Governor Grover.

PROBABLE TIME OF ADJOURNMENT

No time has yet been fixed for a final adjournment, and if anybody knows of the determination of the majority in the matter he keeps mum. I do not think however that there will be an adjournment before the middle of next week. I am under the impression that the Governor is unwilling to assume the responsibility of an extra session, and that in consequence the Democratic members have determined to stay a few days and biddle through what business they can, dump the rest into the waste basket and then quit.

Preparations are making to have an honest election in New York City. The United States Marshal is determined to enforce the Congressional election law and is appointing inspectors at each election [illegible] to see how Tammany does the thing. Whatever force may be necessary to employ on the occasion will be in readiness. Tammany threatens to fight at the polls if its little system of repeating is interfered with, but we guess it won't. [illegible] virtue prudence will teach it a better way.

On the 11th, Collector Robb, of Savannah (Ga.) telegraphed to Secretary Boutwell that the Custom House flag at that place had been lowered by a deputy to half mast, but that he (the Collector) on hearing of it had ordered it again at full mast. He added: "Much public feeling is manifested at my action. Shall the flag be lowered again?" The Secretary returned for answer: "Your action is approved."

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 20 1870

BAD BEGINNING.—During the absence of the [illegible] week [illegible] residence [illegible] was broken into [illegible] Among the [illegible] $[illegible] pearls [illegible] $1 [illegible] Mr [illegible] found [illegible] other pin in their possession and took it away from them. The discovery of the robbery was made as soon as the family returned from Salem, and Officer Tennant was notified and worked up the case, [illegible] the property out, with the exception of three bullion buttons valued at $3 25. These he will procure to-day. While our Legislative Assembly is at Salem and putting up political jobs for their pets and party favorites, instead of legislating for the welfare of the State, laying [illegible] providing for the good of a reform school, [illegible] the youth of the country are [illegible] the art which is to secure [illegible] to fit them in [illegible] cells and to bring disgrace upon their parents and the public. Look around us, see the fruits of the political [illegible], note the number of young thieves by whom we are surrounded and ask if it is not a [illegible] our young State. Names suppressed by request of negligent parents. Is it right?

[illegible].—A gentleman of our acquaintance while wending his way homeward on Tuesday night from business passed up the east side of Fourth street. When about to cross Madison street his foot caught under the Madison street sidewalk plank which has been allowed to remain three or four inches too high at that place and the citizen fell headlong on the walk. The fall stunned him for a moment, and his hands to-day show the marks of numerous fir slivers which penetrated the flesh. It seems to us that while the Council are passing resolutions instructing the Street Commissioner to remove private obstructions in certain streets that such public nuisances as this deserve special attention. The crib built over the sidewalk in front of No 4 Engine Company's new house ought to be provided with aprons on the north and south sides.

THE LINE OF A STREET.—Suit was brought yesterday by Mr H F Bloch vs Jacob Shartle, Street Commissioner, for trespass. The facts of the case are that Mr Shartle was ordered at the last meeting of the Council to remove all fences and other obstructions in A street. Mr Bloch's fence was in the line and he commenced the work of removal and demolition as he had been instructed to do by the Council, and Mr Bloch brings the suit as above stated. The trial of this case will be one of much interest to property owners on both sides of the street.

AYRSHIRE STOCK.—Mrs G G Glenn, of Marion county took the extra premium at the State Fair last week offered by Dr J C Hawthorne, for the best quality of butter. The premium was a fine $50 lady's saddle. Mr Glenn is engaged in the dairy business and for the purpose of improving the stock of his dairy, will leave for the Eastern States to-morrow via Dalles City and Kelton where he intends purchasing fine Ayrshire cattle. Mr Robert Embree will also soon leave on a similar mission, hoping to get stock enough to load at least one car to be brought overland via the Pacific Railroad.

NEGLECTED.—Another important matter which the Legislature could not act upon and attend to the [illegible] was the question of providing against casualties to shipping by neglect of Captains of the smaller craft to put up signal lights in the night time. Since the Legislature met at Salem several narrow escapes from accident of this nature have been met with in the Willamette river, and the Assembly well know that legislation was [illegible] in the premises. But they have preferred to patch up the political cess[illegible]. It is indeed [illegible] every department Democratic.

IDAHO.—Mr Storms of Warrens, Idaho, [illegible] of the firm of Alvord & Storms, arrived in this city on Tuesday evening. He reports matters in that region progressing. Even the thieves are an adroit set of men and appear to manage remarkably well. Mr Storms himself was victim a few weeks ago to the sum of $2,-[illegible] in gold dust, which was abstracted from the [illegible] chest of the firm after the thieves had stupefied Mr S with chloroform.

BOOK DEPOSITORY.—At the late conference meeting of the M E Church of Oregon a committee was appointed to purchase a lot and erect a building in Portland, to be used as a publishing house and book depository. We understand that this action will eventually lead to the establishment of a branch in this city of the great Methodist Book Concern of New York.

THICK FOG.—The Oneonta was three hours making the trip to Vancouver yesterday, in consequence of a very dense fog prevailing. Dan informs us that never before did he witness such a "thick" morning. It appeared at times as though the steamer left her full sized "shape" in the bank it was so thick.

THE POLICE BILL.—We do not presume to say that our readers have at any time been very deeply interested in the Legislative reports to which we have devoted so much space for some weeks past, but we invite attention to the closing debate on the police bill, which will be found in another place in this paper to-day.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—City Assessor Kilbourn is engaged in assessing "improvements" separate from "real estate" on property within the city. This additional work is being done in accordance with the provisions of an ordinance requiring the two items of valuation to be separated from each other.

COMING UP.—While lying at Rainier yesterday Purser McDonald of the Troup, informs us the propeller [illegible] came up from Astoria, and reported that the iron ship Montgomery Castle from Liverpool, consigned to Messrs Janion & Rhodes of this city had crossed the bar on Tuesday evening.

REAL ESTATE.—The lot and tenements known as the East Portland Railroad Hotel standing upon it, was sold at auction yesterday by Mr A B Richardson for the sum of $4 200. The purchaser was Mr John White of Puget Sound. Mr Trainer bought this property in 1865 for $[illegible].

OVER THE TRESTLE WORK.—The locomotive [illegible] yesterday passed over the trestle work at East Portland. There is no obstacle in the way of using this piece of road at any time. It is too solid and substantial enough for all the purposes for which it was intended.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—It is [illegible] the programme that Lord and Hollock shall be Police Commissioners. Who the remaining one will be is not known, but probably some dead head [illegible] to be troublesome to our Tammany [illegible].

[illegible] DIVERS.—Mr Hazleton, the submarine diver, [illegible] driving a lively business along the city front. [illegible] French [illegible] the finding of articles at Couch & Flanders' wharf. Yesterday his explorations have been interesting.

AFLOAT.—The [illegible] has been bailed out and is now ready for her upper works. The cause of the steamer sinking was that the tide left her hanging [illegible] the wharf and her stern [illegible].

[illegible].—The Common Council did not meet last evening for want of a quorum. No particular business was on hand at any rate to render a meeting necessary.

WAX WREATH.—The handsome wax wreath wrought by the hands of Mrs Winne and Miss Ebinger is now on exhibition at Hamman's [illegible]. See advertisement.

[illegible].—[illegible] change in the time of passenger trains on the Oregon and California Railroad in this morning's paper.

INDECENT EXPOSURE.—Officer Allen last evening arrested a drunken [illegible] on Front street for indecent exposure. He should be severely dealt with.

BRIEF MENTION.—The heating apparatus for the M E Church on Taylor street is being put in place.

The bark W[illegible] and brig A[illegible] left San Francisco for Portland on Tuesday.

ROBBERIES.—During the absence of the [illegible] family at Salem last week, their residence was broken into by three young aspirants for penitentiary honors, and jewelry and valuables to the amount of $250. Among the jewels was one breastpin, diamond set, worth about $90, which the young thief sold to another boy for $1. Mr Pat Smith found [illegible] pin in their possession and took it away. THE OREGON LEGISLATURE

Sixth Biennial Session

SENATE—Morning Session

SALEM Tuesday Oct 18, 1870

The President being absent Mr. Baldwin called the Senate to order and on his motion Mr Cochran was elected President pro tem

The Clerk read the Journal of yesterday

BILLS READ THIRD TIME

S B [illegible] To amend the Act to [illegible] code of civil procedure approved Oct 11, 186[illegible] was read third time and passed 18 [illegible]

Mr Mosher asked leave of absence till [illegible] M to-morrow. Granted

SPECIAL ORDER

Mr Cochran from the Special Committee to whom was referred S J R 19—asking Congress to grant an appropriation for the improvement of the Willamette Falls, called attention to the fact that the report of the committee was made the special order for [illegible] A M

The President said the Senate had so ordered

Mr Cochran said he would like to state something of the history of the report before submitting it. The resolution was yesterday referred to a special committee with instructions to report at 10 this morning. On coming into the Senate Chamber this morning he had found the resolution laying loose on the desk of the Senator from Wasco——

The President—The Senator from Wasco is chairman of the special committee to whom the resolution was referred

Mr Brown of Baker—The Senator from Wasco is absent [illegible] the resolution. He [illegible] that he had left it laying on his desk and that it had disappeared. He has gone now to look for it

Mr Strahan—It appears that the committee is not ready to report. I suggest that the Senate go on with the third reading of bills. He moved to make the report the special order for 3 o'clock P M, which was agreed to

S B 22 regarding enclosures—read third time and passed 15 to 3

S B 40, to create the office of Circuit Court reporter—read third time

Mr Cochran opposed the bill on the ground of the expense which it would entail upon the counties in cases where parties should be unable to pay the reporters' fees

Mr Fay (Mr Burch in the Chair) said that inasmuch as there is great doubt as to what particular field the 500 000 acres of land belongs to, and as it may be necessary to have a legal decision, it will be very important to have a full phonographic report of the trial. [These remarks supposed to be ironical.]

Mr Cochran rose to a point of order, that the 500 000 acres of land was not the question pending

The President—(Mr Burch) the question is on the passage of S B 40

Mr Fay repeated and enlarged upon his remarks, in a facetious view

Messrs Stout and Strahan favored the bill on the ground that it would save both the time of the courts and the expense of trials by avoiding delay

Mr Lienallen—(very rapidly and snappishly) Mr President, I shall vote for the bill and if anybody asks me afterwards why I did it, I'll tell 'em. [Laughter.]

The vote was taken and the bill was passed 14 to 4

S B 51 to amend an Act to tax and regulate foreign insurance companies doing business in this State—was read third time and passed, 14 to 3

S B 55 to appropriate money for payment of the expenses of the contested election cases (Yamhill and Benton)—was read third time

Mr Stout—I wish to inquire of the gentleman from Benton what part of this appropriation goes to the "Mercenary Brigade"?

Mr Fay (quickly)—All of it

Mr Strahan—The "Mercenary Brigade" will be on hand to take charge of it

The bill passed—15 to 2

S B 57 to annex Tillamook to Yamhill county for judicial purposes, was read the third time.

Mr Cornelius opposed the bill on the ground of its unconstitutionality. The Constitution provides that no bill shall be passed which shall embrace more than one subject matter, etc. This bill proposes not only to annex Tillamook to Yamhill county for judicial purposes, which is one subject matter, but to change the county line between Tillamook and Clatsop counties, which is another and different subject matter

Mr Newby favored the bill, holding that the two subject matters were properly related

Mr Mosher expressed his belief that the bill is constitutional

The bill passed—14 to 4

S B 56, to amend the Act providing for private incorporations, etc., was taken from the table and on motion of Mr Fay, was made the special order for to-morrow at 10 A M

On motion of Mr Mosher S B 45, relating to elections and the mode of filling vacancies in office, was taken from the table and read the third time

Mr Cochran moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Elections, with instructions to amend in several particulars, which was agreed to

The Senate adjourned till 2 o'clock P M

Afternoon Session.

SLAUGHTER OF BILLS

S B 15 to amend the General Law relating to assessments; indefinitely postponed

S B 42, to equalize taxation among the several counties of the State; indefinitely postponed

S B 43 and 44, amendatory of the Civil Code; indefinitely postponed

H B 24 to repeal certain sections of the Civil Code; indefinitely postponed

H B 15 amendatory of the Civil Code in relation to assessments; indefinitely postponed

H B 13, amendatory of the Civil Code in relation to arrests; indefinitely postponed

H B 12, amendatory of the Civil Code

Mr Thompson moved to indefinitely postpone

Mr Cornelius moved to amend by making the motion to indefinitely postpone all business from the House

The President—There is good sense in the amendment but under our rules the motion is out of order

The bill was indefinitely postponed

The President—That closes the slaughter. [Laughter.]

APPROPRIATION BILL SIGNED

A message from the House was read announcing that the Speaker had signed the General Appropriation bill and, also, the bill to increase the pay of clerks; also that the House had concurred in the Senate amendment to the Appropriation bill

The President announced that he had signed the General Appropriation bill

CONTINUATION OF THE SLAUGHTER

The following bills were slaughtered by indefinite postponement or otherwise

S B No 34, to amend the law to tax and regulate insurance companies

S B No 47 to create the office of Insurance Commissioner

H J R No 17, asking Congress to confirm the 500 000 acre grant to the school fund—laid on the table

S B No 59 to prevent conspiracies to break up the Legislative Assembly. Lost by a vote of 10 to 11

BILLS TO REGULATE ELECTIONS

Mr Holtsclaw, from the Committee on Elections, to whom was referred S B 45, relating to elections and the mode of filling vacancies in office, reported the same back with several amendments, which were adopted and the bill put upon its passage.

Mr Cornelius said he had not opposed the bill heretofore, but an amendment had just been adopted which ought in his judgment, to defeat the bill. He alluded to the amendment which provides that all votes received after 7 o'clock should be held illegal. He did not object to providing that the polls shall be closed at 7 o'clock or any other hour, but the amendment does not provide any such thing. It impliedly says that votes may be received after 7 o'clock, but that such votes shall be illegal

Mr Newby argued that the clause was necessary to prevent fraud, to prevent the judges of election from improperly extending the time for receiving votes

A message from the House was received accompanied by H. J M 8, asking Congress to change the northern boundary of the State. The Senate concurred.

The following bills were received from the House

H B 46, amendatory of the Civil Code, in relation to the time of commencing suits—read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee

H B 65 to prevent frauds in elections—read twice and referred to Committee on Elections.

H B 53 amendatory of the laws relating to pilotage at the mouth of the Columbia river

H B [illegible] relating to water rights and rights of way to construct canals, flumes and ditches

JOINT COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION

The President announced the appointment of Messrs Strahan and Moores on the Joint Committee to examine the books of the Secretary and Treasurer

At 5 30 P M the Senate adjourned till 8 A M to-morrow

HOUSE—Morning Session.

SALEM Tuesday Oct 18

The House was called to order at 8 A M by the Speaker

The report of yesterday's proceedings should show that the Committee on Education reported favorably upon the bill to regulate the practice of medicine, etc., accompanying the report with a petition from the Medical Association of the Third Judicial District signed by Dr Bell as President and Dr Warrine as Secretary, which asks the passage of the bill.

ASHAMED OF THE RECORD

Mr Amis—I see that the resolution relative to repudiation offered by the gentleman from Multnomah, Mr Whalley, is spread at length on the journal. So far as I am concerned I do not think that the resolution ought to be published with the minutes. It is a kind of document that I think should not appear upon the records. It was rejected by the House and should not appear there. If in order I will move that we reject the publication in the journal of that resolution

The Speaker—The Chair will not entertain a motion of that sort

Mr Amis—(interrupting) Well it was rejected

The Speaker—The resolution was rejected but the journal should show the nature of the resolution offered. The Chair is of opinion that it will not do anybody any harm

Mr Amis—I do not feel like putting the State to the expense of publishing such stuff

Mr Whalley—I would say if the gentleman is opposed to the publication of such stuff he should be careful in the future as to the character of the [illegible] [illegible] business

Mr Amis—I will just say that I think that anything that the House rejects on account of its improper character should be kept off the journal. Suppose a member should offer a resolution consuring the conduct of this House embodying all sorts of slang. Should such a resolution go upon the journal? I think that there can be bills offered which should not be put upon the record

The Speaker—The Chair is of the opinion that it is necessary that the resolution should appear upon the journal

Mr O'Regan—If the gentleman feels aggrieved he can make a motion to expunge that part of the journal. I would second such a motion

Mr Amis—I will move to expunge the resolution from the journal

The Speaker—The Chair will entertain a motion to correct but not to expunge [illegible]

The journal was approved

WAGON ROAD—RAILROAD

Mr Whiteaker offered a joint resolution asking our Representative in Congress and instructing our Senators in Congress to solicit a grant of lands to aid the construction of a wagon road from Eugene City via Springfield, the McKenzie's fork of the Willamet and the Three Sisters, across the Cascades, to Chico creek, in Wasco county. The resolution was adopted

Mr Carlisle offered a joint resolution requesting our Representative and instructing our Senators in Congress to use their influence to procure a grant of lands from Congress to aid the construction of a railroad from Corvallis to Yaquina bay, the grant to include the lands of Siletz Reservation. The resolution was adopted—ayes 34, nays, 9

WAGON ROAD—SCHOOL LANDS

Mr McLain offered a memorial asking Congress for a land subsidy to aid the construction of a wagon road from Winnemucca via Baker City to Pendleton in Umatilla county. The memorial was adopted

Mr Drain offered a joint resolution to ask such action by Congress as will enable the Commissioner of the General Land Office to pass the title to certain school lands to the State, [illegible] such lands having been improperly sold by the State. The resolution was adopted

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr Dorris introduced a bill to separate the office of County Clerk from County Recorder in the counties of Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Clackamas and Yamhill. The bill was read the first time

Mr [illegible] introduced a bill [illegible] the importation of [illegible] affected with [illegible]. The bill was read the first time.

Mr Helm introduced a bill [illegible] the general laws relative to the distribution of [illegible]. The bill was read the first time

Mr McLain introduced a bill to amend the general laws Sec [illegible] Chapter 4 [illegible] relative to [illegible]. The bill was [illegible] the first time and referred to the Committee on Highways

Mr McLain said that it was intended to [illegible] roads to Baker county

Mr McLain also introduced a bill to [illegible] the boundaries of Baker county. It was read the first time

Mr Helm introduced a bill to exempt firemen from road and poll taxes in certain cases. It was read the first time

Mr Lockhart introduced a bill for the relief of [illegible] on account of an extra expense incurred by the change of the Circuit Court made by the Legislature recently. Appropriates $400 for the purpose. Read the first time

MORE SCHOOL MONEY WANTED—REAPPORTIONMENT

Also a bill to appropriate $1 [illegible] for the funds arising from the sale of the [illegible] acre grant to aid the construction of a canal by the Coos Bay and Coquelle River Canal Company. The bill was read the first time and ordered printed

Mr Hare introduced a bill to reapportion the representatives of the State. [The bill fixes the apportionment as follows: Marion county 3 Senators and 5 Representatives; Linn 3 Senators and 4 Representatives; Clackamas 2 Senators and 3 Representatives; Yamhill 2 Senators and 3 Representatives; Polk 1 Senator and 3 Representatives; Benton 1 Senator and 2 Representatives, and 1 Representative jointly with Polk; Multnomah 3 Senators and 5 Representatives; Washington 1 Senator and 3 Representatives; Lane 1 Senator and 2 Representatives; Baker 1 Senator and 2 Representatives; Union 1 Senator and 2 Representatives; Umatilla, 1 Senator and 2 Representatives; Wasco 1 Senator and 2 Representatives; Douglas 2 Senators and 4 Representatives; Douglas Coos and Curry jointly 1 Senator; Yamhill and Tillamook 1 Senator and 1 Representative, jointly; Columbia and Clatsop 1 Senator and 1 Representative jointly; Jackson and Josephine 2 Senators and 4 Representatives jointly, and Coos and Curry 1 Representative jointly.]

Mr Helm—I do not think that this is the time to make the apportionment. I move to lay the bill on the table

Mr Hare—I hope the gentleman will withdraw that motion in order to give the [illegible]. [illegible] to say a word for the bill

The motion prevailed

PUBLIC PRINTING

Mr Dunbar introduced a bill to fix the compensation of the State Printer

The bill allows $1 per 1 000 ems for composition; figure work $1 50; rule work, $1 40; rule and figure work $1 75; press work per token (240 sheets) $1; folding $1 50 per 1 000 sheets; for stitching 10 cents per 100 copies; binding (with paper covers) and folding $1 [illegible] per 100 copies; paper $20 per ream; for printing executive proclamations, advertisements, and similar work $1 50 per square of 12 lines for the first insertion and fifty cents per square for each succeeding insertion

Mr McLain—I move to lay the bill on the table

Mr Lockhart—I arise to a point of order. The rule says the question shall be upon the rejection of the bill if objection is made to it on its first reading.

The point was sustained and the bill was rejected, the Democrats voting aye and the Republicans no

Mr Fulton introduced a bill to repeal the law relative to swine running at large in Wasco county. Read first time

Mr Hunter introduced a bill for the relief of Marion county. (The amount is left blank.)

Mr Amis moved to refer the bill to a select committee of three. The motion prevailed

Mr Hunter presented a petition from citizens of Union county, asking the passage of a bill to prevent hogs from running at large during certain months of the year

Mr De Shiel introduced a bill to fix the salaries of the County Judge and County Treasurer of Baker county. It was read the first time

Mr Helm gave notice of a bill to regulate the rate of fare and freights

Mr —— introduced a bill to empower assessors to assess bank deposits

Mr McCoy offered a joint resolution to allow the Sergeant-at-Arms $2 a day additional compensation. The resolution was adopted

PAY TO THE CLACKAMAS CONTESTANTS

Mr Apperson offered a joint resolution to allow mileage and per diem to the contestants from Clackamas county from the beginning of the session to the conclusion of the contest. Adopted—ayes 31, noes 10

Mr Fulton introduced a bill for an Act relating to enclosures lying east of the Cascade Mountains, which was read the first time

GUARDING THE BALLOT BOX

Mr Davenport introduced a bill to amend section 4 of chapter 13, page 697 of the Code, so as to require County Courts to appoint Judges of the Elections, so that all shall not be of the same political party

Mr Helm—I move to lay the bill upon the table

Mr Davenport—I did not suppose such a bill would create any alarm among the majority of this House after hearing so many protestations of honesty and in[illegible] I understand that in the past both parties have appointed in some instances the Judges of Election entirely from one party—the party to which the County Court belonged. I think the practice is all wrong and we should amend it

Mr Helm—It has been the custom heretofore for the court to appoint the Judges of Election from the party to which the majority of the court belonged. It seems that the gentleman from Marion has just waked up to the necessity of a change. Now sir I think that the gentlemen of the party which in the past has practiced this thing should not come here and dictate to the Democratic party what it should do

Mr Hare—All that I have to say is, that I was of the impression from what I have so often heard that our Democratic friends were to so guard the ballot box as to keep it entirely free from any impurities or frauds. Now what is the proposition before us? It is simply to secure the end for which the Democratic party claims to contend. I had hoped that some gentleman from that side of the house would offer a provision of this kind. But it has not been done. A proposition has been presented, however, which I deem a good one, and I hope to see it prevail. Because it has come from the Republican side of the house is certainly no reason why it should be rejected. Let us pass this bill and hereafter no frauds can be perpetrated at the polls without all parties have an opportunity to learn of it and expose it. I offered this morning, a bill to secure a fair and impartial apportionment of the representatives of the counties in the State. That was rejected without even giving an opportunity to hear a word in its favor. Now if my Democratic friends are really in earnest when they say they are in favor of fair elections, why not vote for this measure? Why not help us to throw around the ballot box the proper safeguards so as to preserve this citadel of our liberties from fraud and corruption? I would like to know how any objections can be raised by even the most rabid partisan to this bill. We do not propose to dictate the course this House should pursue, as has been intimated by the gentleman from Linn (Mr Helm). We simply desire to discharge our duty to the people

Mr Porter said he had once been appointed one of a committee of three to ask that a Democrat be allowed to attend the polls as a judge of an election. He was told by the Republican Board that it was an insult to the Republican party for a rebel to ask a favor from them. He was opposed to the bill

Mr Dunbar said the measure should not be considered as a partisan question, but as a proposition to rectify an acknowledged wrong. If either party had taken advantage of its power to appoint election judges exclusively from its own partisans it would have been guilty of a wrong, and the law should be so amended as to prevent like wrongs in the future

Mr Whiteaker regarded it as an impracticable measure, as the County Court could not ascertain positively before an election which way a man would vote

Mr Starkweather regretted that any member had thought the minority proposed to dictate, simply because they offered measures which must receive the approval of the majority before they could be passed. It is the duty of each member to offer any proposition which he deems proper in the discharge of his duty. He thought the bill a good one, especially as a bill is pending which proposes to change the manner of voting to the ballot system. Each party should be represented at the polls so as to see that the ballot box is not fraudulently stuffed

Mr Hayden opposed the bill. There can be but three Judges of election and there may be more than three political parties. Hence a bill requiring a member of each party to be appointed as a judge of election would be impracticable

Mr Carlisle moved the previous question, which was ordered by the House, and the bill was rejected by a party vote

FURTHER INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Mr Shuck introduced a bill to prevent vagrancy. (It is the same bill that was indefinitely postponed some days ago.)

The rules were suspended and the bill was read the second time by title and referred [illegible]

Mr Shuck also introduced a bill to protect [illegible] from injury. It was read the first time

Mr Caldwell introduced a bill [illegible] licenses for ferries and toll bridges. It was read the first time

Mr McCoy called up House bill No [illegible], an Act relating to water rights etc. The bill was read a third time and passed—ayes 4[illegible], nays 2

CARE OF THE INSANE

Mr Whiteaker from the [illegible] made a report. The majority of the committee had visited the asylum and found it [illegible] good care and treatment and accommodations of patients and the existence of grounds and gymnasium. Several propositions have been made, but as they [illegible] cared for, and as they consider the proposal of Mr Hawthorne the cheapest and best, the proposition [illegible] the Governor to contract with him for the next two years from December 1st at $[illegible] per week, and recommended that one mill tax be levied for an Insane Asylum Fund

Mr Whiteaker moved to adopt the resolution

Mr Apperson moved to amend by inserting "four years" where it says "two years," as term of contract

Mr Whalley favored the amendment because the patients were well cared for at a less price than was paid in other States. This was the case [illegible] Legislature and the State [illegible] four years. Again if the contract was given for four years [illegible] the [illegible] premises which [illegible] the wise [illegible]

Mr Hare [illegible] the question [illegible] was [illegible] the asylum and he could hear testimony to the excellent treatment of Dr Hawthorne. He [illegible] it humane to make a change which might [illegible] these men in an experienced and careful hands

Mr Davenport favored two years and thought it could be proved that other States [illegible] as low as $[illegible] a week, and he believed [illegible] would be saved each year by the State if it would take care of its insane. This sum would soon build the asylum. If we go in for economy we should build the asylum. We are in the condition of the man who would not roof his house when it rained and didn't need a roof when it was dry. In two years we would be in no better condition to keep our insane

The amendment was lost—ayes 23, noes 24

Mr Amis offered an amendment to insert $6 instead of $6 50 and insert Kinney & Knott instead of Hawthorne

Mr Whalley moved the previous question

Mr Apperson moved to adjourn

Mr Amis gave way with the understanding that he should have the floor

At 12:10 the House adjourned

Afternoon Session.

[illegible]

The Speaker announced the appointment of Messrs Shuck and Savage as the special committee [illegible] the relief of Union county

H B [illegible] an Act to authorize [illegible] counties for the scalps of wild animals, was read the second time

Mr Drain offered an amendment [illegible] $[illegible] for the scalps [illegible]

Mr Whalley moved [illegible]

Mr Drain—[illegible]

Mr Lockhart moved to amend [illegible] county

The amendment prevailed and the bill was engrossed

[illegible] RAILROAD—FISHERIES

H [illegible] An Act in relation to fencing railroads was read the second time and ordered engrossed

H B [illegible] An Act for the protection of fisheries was read the second time and ordered engrossed

REPRESENTATION

H B [illegible] An Act to apportion the representation in certain counties of this State—was read the second time

Mr Lockhart—This is the bill offered by Judge [illegible] ey and the House [illegible] me to present a substitute which I now send up to the desk

The substitute proposes to give Yamhill one Senator and two Representatives; Tillamook and Yamhill one Representative jointly; Washington, Clatsop and Tillamook one Senator jointly; Washington two Representatives; Columbia and Clatsop one Representative each.]

Mr Shuck—I move to indefinitely postpone the substitute and the bill. We do not wish to have the counties interfered with. We are satisfied with what we have got, and I hope the House will vote down the substitute

Mr Hare—I would just like to say that the [illegible] have a population of more than 6 000. Washington county has but one Senator and two Representatives. There are gentlemen here who do not represent half so large a constituency as do the Representatives from these counties. The bill simply proposes to give the counties of Columbia and Clatsop each a Representative but does not give them all they are entitled to

Mr Odeney—I proposed this substitute because I discovered that objections would probably be made to the bill. The original bill gave to Tillamook and Yamhill counties a Senator as well as a Representative. Yamhill is pretty evenly balanced and both parties can expect to carry it at the next election. The original bill would have secured a Republican Senator. I have left out that provision in the substitute and propose merely to give a Representative to the two counties. This leaves Tillamook in the Senatorial district of Washington. This leaves Yamhill her Senator and her two Representatives. It is expected that the joint representation will occasionally be conceded each county. Of course the Republicans [illegible] and by giving Tillamook and Clatsop each a Representative we will add a Democratic Representative to balance the Republican Representative. It is thus [illegible] the counties their due representation and stoo clear of difficulties

Mr Shuck—When the bill first came up [illegible] relative to the Senator. But I have since [illegible] Tillamook only [illegible] with a Senator jointly. For that reason I have come to the conclusion to vote against the bill and I hope the House will stand up in the wishes of Yamhill and Tillamook counties

The motion to indefinitely postpone failed—13 ayes, [illegible] nays—and the substitute was adopted

Mr Townsend—I move to refer the bill to a special committee of three

The motion was agreed to and the Speaker appointed Messrs Townsend, Hunter and Lockhart as such Committee

KLAMATH COUNTY—AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

H B 54—An Act to create and organize the county of Klamath, was read and ordered engrossed

S B 41—An Act to permanently locate the Agricultural College of Oregon was read the second time and ordered engrossed

DRAINAGE OF LANDS—RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS

S B 29—An Act to complete the drainage of State lands in Union county. It appropriates $[illegible] for the purpose.]

Mr Hunter—I move that the bill be engrossed and read a third time to-morrow

The motion failed

S B 39—An Act to regulate the formation of religious incorporations

Mr Dorris said he was opposed to the bill because it makes a Bishop an incorporation with sole power to hold property. He thought there was great danger to the State in giving too much power to religious societies

Mr Whalley said the danger was to be apprehended from corporations aggregate and not from corporations sole. He moved to order this bill to its third reading

Mr Hare desired to amend by adding a section to restrict the value of property to be held by such incorporations to $500 000

The amendment was adopted and the bill ordered engrossed

A LEAK OF [illegible]

Senate bill 21—An act to aid the construction of a wagon road through Jackson, Baker and [illegible] counties

Mr Dorris—This is the first of about a dozen bills to take away the [illegible] fund, and I am opposed to all of them. I move to amend by laying the bill upon the table

The motion prevailed

THIRD READING OF BILLS—FEES OF GRAND JURY WITNESSES

The substitute for H B 40 An act to amend the Civil Code relative to the commencing of suits was read the third time and passed unanimously

H B — An act relative to fees of witnesses before Grand Juries, was read the third time and passed; ayes 53, nays, 5.

Mr Apperson—Having voted in the affirmative I move to reconsider, because I notice the bill allows fees only when true bills are found. It appears to me that such a provision would have a tendency to encourage hard swearing. There is an unjust discrimination against persons who may testify before Grand Juries when a true bill is not found. He may come from a distance at considerable expense and he should have the fees whether an indictment is found or not

Mr Whalley preferred the law established by the decision of the Supreme Court because it applied to all witnesses who are subpoenaed whether an indictment is found or not. Under that decision witnesses who go voluntarily before the jury are not entitled to fees and therefore [illegible] a premium for hard swearing.

Mr Hare was opposed to reconsidering the vote. He was also opposed to the bill as it inflicts too much expense upon counties. He moved to lay the motion on the table, but at the request of Mr Dorris withdrew the motion

Mr Dorris said the bill proposed to only allow fees when a true bill is found in order to except the class of men who are in the habit of running before Grand Juries with trifling charges

The motion to reconsider prevailed—ayes 23, noes 5 and the bill was laid on the table

FEES OF OFFICERS—FRAUDS BY ELECTIONS

H B 34 an Act to reduce the fees of officers in the counties east of the Cascade Mountains

Mr McLain—Since this bill was drawn up Wasco has annexed herself to the General Fee bill and I move to insert after the word Wasco the word [illegible] as to except that county also from this bill

Mr. McCoy—I move to insert Grant county also

The amendments were adopted and the Speaker decided the question to be upon the passage of the bill

Mr O'Regan—We are doing a good deal of business here to-day. I am informed that in the Senate they are killing our bills at the rate of about one a minute. [Laughter.]

The bill was passed unanimously.

H B 65 an act to prevent and punish frauds in elections was read the third time

Mr O'Regan—Mr Speaker I am in order

Mr Speaker—The question has been stated and the Chair began to take the vote. The gentleman was therefore not strictly in order, but the Chair will be glad to hear him as he is always brief and pointed in his remarks. [Laughter.]

Mr O'Regan—I thought I was in order. I will ask if I was in order. [Question, question.] [illegible]

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll

Mr Davenport—I desire to explain my vote. I am very much in favor of the first four sections of this bill. I think they are just right, but I cannot cast my vote so as to favor these sections without also favoring the last section which I believe will disfranchise a large class of good citizens. I am opposed to the last section. I do not believe in disfranchising men because they labor on railroads or other public works, and I am not so much in favor of the first four sections as to vote for the last. I pass the [illegible] I shall vote no

Mr Hare—I have to say in regard to the section that could that it have been so made as not to [illegible] [illegible] I [illegible] that [illegible] section is intended to disfranchise men who are entitled to [illegible]

Mr Dorris—I would like to have [illegible] before we go any further. Can a gentleman make a speech during roll call?

The Speaker—There is no rule upon the question

Cries of "Call the roll." [Question.]

Mr O'Regan—I hope the House will give me a chance to state why I vote and how I vote. I will not vote to disfranchise honest hard working men and I don't think the Democracy would do it. I shall vote no

Mr Engel—I desire to state the reason why I will vote no. The reason is I think this bill will be a dead letter on the statute book after it is enacted. I vote no

Call the roll. Call the roll

The Speaker—Gentlemen cannot explain further without the unanimous consent of the House. The Clerk will proceed with calling the roll

The bill was lost—ayes 29, noes [illegible]. Democrats voting for and Republicans against it

H B 64—An Act to [illegible] laws relative to pilotage on the [illegible] Columbia and Willamette rivers was called [illegible] third time

Mr Hare [illegible] I will say that I shall vote [illegible] I believe it a fair tax [illegible] the commerce of the State

Mr Whalley—I move to lay the bill on the table

The motion failed [illegible] and the bill was passed [illegible]

[illegible] MEDICINE—TAX [illegible]

H B — An Act to regulate the practice of medicine and dentistry in [illegible] was read [illegible]

[illegible] An Act to tax [illegible] was passed

[illegible] SALARY [illegible]

S B 35 An Act to create the [illegible] of Assistant [illegible] of State and to fix his salary and define his duties

Mr Davenport—As I understand the reading of the bill it [illegible] I [illegible] I [illegible] amend [illegible] to except the school fund

Mr Hare believed that it [illegible] with the provisions of the State Constitution, which says the State [illegible] shall [illegible] the compensation [illegible] but desired to [illegible] increase the salary directly [illegible]

Mr Whalley—I desire to explain my vote. Under my understanding of the bill it does not provide any fees for the Treasurer of State but merely a compensation for the officer whom the bill creates, and with that understanding I vote aye

The bill was passed

Aayes—Messrs Alexander, Amis, Apperson, Burnett, Caldwell, Clark, Carson, Comegys, Callaway, Drain, Dorris, Deshiel, Fulton, Helm, Hunter, Lockhart, Mr[illegible], Lain, McCoy, O'Regan, Porter, Rader, Shuck, Savage, Thompson, Townsend, Whiteaker, Whalley and Wal[illegible] [illegible]

Noes—Messrs Carlisle, Dunbar, Davenport, Eckert, [illegible] Hare [illegible] Hons [illegible] Hat[illegible] McKean [illegible] Ostrander [illegible] Quimby, Starkweather and Wells [illegible]

At [illegible] the House adjourned till [illegible] P M

Evening Session

The House met at [illegible] o'clock P M the Speaker in the Chair

Absent Messrs [illegible] Lakin, O'Regan [illegible] and Whalley

[illegible] POLICE BILL [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr Hare moved a call of the House. The motion was seconded

Messrs Alexander, O'Regan, [illegible] and Whiteaker were absent

Mr Whalley—I am opposed to this bill and I have a [illegible] that the people of the city of Portland are bitterly opposed to the bill. I hope it——

Mr Helm (interrupting)—I call the gentleman to order. There is a call of the House

The Speaker—The Chair understands that there is a motion to dispense with the further call of the House

Mr Hare—I raise this point of order: that the call is not completed until the absentees are sent for, which has not yet been done. I call attention to the [illegible]

The Speaker—The rule says the call shall not be dispensed with until the absentees are sent for [illegible] is made to that effect. No member has demanded that the absentees should be sent for. Therefore the motion is in order

Mr Whalley—I hold that it is the duty of the Chair to send for the absentees. The motion for the call itself is a demand that they be sent for

The Speaker—The Chair decides the motion in order. If the gentleman is not satisfied he can appeal from the decision of the Chair

Mr Whalley—I appeal from the decision of the Chair

The Speaker put the question on the appeal and decided it sustained by the House

The Speaker—Now I guess the gentleman is satisfied

Mr Dorris—As the bill is a very long one and as it will take about [illegible] to read it [illegible] I move that the rules be suspended and that the bill be read by title

Mr Whalley—I trust the motion to suspend the rules will not prevail. This is a very important measure, affecting a constituency as intelligent as any in the State and representing just as much wealth in proportion to their number as any other part of the State. I have in my hand a petition against the passage of this bill. It is signed by some of the most respectable citizens and property holders of that city. The constituency which I represent are bitterly opposed to the passage of this bill and I think it should at least be allowed to take its regular course. The rules should not be suspended so as to rush such a measure through in this indecent manner. The length of the bill is no reason why it should be smothered up in the people without giving them an opportunity to be heard. I regard the bill as totally under[illegible] and contrary to the spirit of our institutions and as an attempt on the part of certain interested individuals to obtain offices to which the people of the city refused to elect them. It is an attempt to lay the will of the people at the feet of this Legislature—to annul the expressed will of American citizens. For that reason I am opposed to saddling such a measure upon the people by any such hocus pocus arrangement

Mr Apperson—I desire to say just one word. If I was sure that there had been no changes in the original bill I would not object to the suspension of the rules. But there is no way in which the House can know that fact except by hearing the bill read, and I shall therefore vote against the suspension of the rules

Mr Helm—While the gentlemen from Multnomah and Clackamas may have hostile feelings towards this bill, I am notwithstanding that fact a good bill. The people of Portland have long been suffering for want of proper police regulations and police officers. This bill proposes to give that city an efficient Board of Police Commissioners which shall have power to reorganize the police department, so that crimes may be prevented and promptly punished in that city. It is no wonder that the gentlemen oppose this bill. They fear, perhaps, that some political friends of theirs may suffer. They are opposed to the bill for political purposes. I know that men of both parties have spoken to me upon this subject in favor of this bill. It is only necessary to look at the newspapers to recall the history of the police department of Portland, to know that at present there is no safety there for the persons or property of the people. I hope the rules will be suspended

The motion was declared carried—ayes 30, nays 12

Mr Hare raised the point of order that as the House consists of 47 members 32 are necessary to constitute a quorum

The Speaker decided the point not well taken

Mr Whalley—I appeal from the decision of the Chair

Mr Whiteaker—A quorum constitutes a House and two thirds of a quorum is two-thirds of the House

The Speaker—That is the decision of the Chair

Mr Whalley—From that ruling I appeal to the House

Mr Whiteaker—If gentlemen are disposed to waste the time of this House with attempts to delay they will find it rough.

The Speaker—The Chair decides that 31 members constitute two-thirds of this. From this decision the gentleman from Multnomah appeals

Mr Hare—The Chair does not state the point properly

The Speaker—Send up your appeal in writing

Mr. Whiteaker—I would suggest that the question should be put in this form: Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the decision of the House.

The Speaker—That is so; I will put it in that shape

The motion was put and the decision was declared sustained

The rules were then suspended and the bill was read the first time by title

Mr Helm—I move that the rules be now further suspended and that the bill be read the second time now by title

Mr Whalley—I move to lay that motion upon the table

The motion failed; ayes 14, noes, 27

Mr Shuck—I move the previous question

Mr Whalley—I beg that the gentleman will give way for a moment till I can present a petition against the bill, (cries of Question, Question) signed by four fifths of the property-owners of the city

The Speaker—The gentleman is out of order

The previous question was ordered and the rules were suspended. The bill was then read the second time by title

Mr Whiteaker—I would move you now that the rules be again suspended and that the bill be read a third time now. And in this connection I would suggest that the petition should be heard. I desire that it should be heard after this vote is taken

Mr Whalley—I appreciate the fairness of the gentleman from Lane. I am exceedingly glad to find him so courteous to the delegation from Multnomah. I desire to have the petition read and while I shall not relax my opposition to the bill, I shall make no further captious opposition to it. Let the voice of the people of Multnomah be heard so that the blame may rest where it belongs. If I cannot defeat this bill I hope at the least to have the proud satisfaction of having done my duty

Mr O'Regan—(entering and taking his place) I will vote against the bill

Mr Whiteaker—(sotto voce)—Call the roll

Mr O'Regan—I have the floor I believe. If this House can say—if the member who says "call the roll" can say that he has always been here to answer to his name——

The Speaker—The gentleman from Multnomah will take his seat.

Mr O'Regan—All right. [Laughter.]

The rules were suspended; ayes 31, noes 2

Mr Whalley—Before the bill is read, I desire to have the petition read

Mr Whiteaker—Let us have the bill first

Mr O'Regan—Courtesy

The Speaker—The Chair regrets to have to suggest the propriety of the gentleman again taking his seat

Mr O'Regan—That is gag law—Democratic gag law

The Clerk began reading the bill

Mr O'Regan—(interrupting) I arise to a point of order. I want to know whether the State of Oregon has the right to dictate to the city of Portland what it shall do

The Speaker—That is not a point of order

The bill was read

Mr Whalley—I now call for the reading of the petition

Mr Dorris—I should like to hear the petition read omitting the names

The Clerk read

We the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of the city of Portland, do hereby most earnestly protest against the passage of the bill now pending in the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon to amend the Charter of the city of Portland, providing for the appointment of a Board of Police Commissioners by the Governor of the State, and in matters of police regulations we [illegible] most [illegible] and claim the privilege of choosing our local officers

The petition was signed by T. A. Davis, F. W. [illegible], C. H. [illegible] McCraken, Meier & Co., A. D. Shelby, F. F. Harrington and [illegible] other names

Mr Whalley spoke [illegible] the bill. He regarded it as an outrage upon the liberties of the people of Portland—an attempt to [illegible] taught the will as expressed at the ballot box

Mr [illegible] and the present [illegible] Irishman and that he was elected by a majority of 100 votes. He asked if the House wished to [illegible] him because he is an Irishman. Mr [illegible] was [illegible] himself an Irishman and [illegible] would say that he had endangered his life for the [illegible] the [illegible] of the House. He [illegible] of the House to [illegible] to the people of Multnomah county

Mr Hare looked upon the bill as an attempt on the part of the Democratic party to punish the people of Portland because they had not elected the Democratic ticket at the last election. He reminded members of the party of their protestations against what were alleged to be improper acts by the Republicans, and called upon them to [illegible] Republicans to [illegible] the people [illegible] protested against it

Mr Dorris—The first gentleman from Multnomah (Mr Whalley) hoped that this House will observe the golden rule [illegible] [illegible] to do unto him [illegible]. A few years ago the Republicans [illegible] New York turned the Democrats [illegible] and [illegible] Republican [illegible] I am so far [illegible]. The last gentleman thinks the people of Portland should [illegible] their own affairs. I will call his attention to the fact that it is only in this Legislature that the people [illegible] and [illegible] that it is only here that they can amend their charter. Now before [illegible] the petition. That [illegible] [illegible] Why any man would get up a petition [illegible] There is not anything [illegible] what [illegible] to take a [illegible] [illegible] petition. They say it represents [illegible] of the [illegible] Front street. Well I say it [illegible] I think that the bill is a good one. [illegible] Multnomah [illegible]

Mr Whalley—I am glad the gentleman [illegible] known [illegible]

Mr Fulton said the Republicans [illegible] [illegible] legislation [illegible] [illegible] laws [illegible] [illegible] speech [illegible] As to the [illegible] and its signers had been [illegible] [illegible] the Republicans [illegible] the bill. So [illegible] when they saw [illegible] [Laughter.]

Mr Helm repeated his argument in favor of the bill

Mr Apperson warned the majority that they might burn their fingers by such an unreasonable and undemocratic course. He believed the bill in conflict with that part of the Constitution which prohibits the Legislature from levying a tax upon any part of the State without the consent of the people

Mr Amis advised the minority just to go slow and to have no fears about Democrats burning their fingers

Mr Hayden favored the bill as absolutely necessary to protect the people of Portland. At present no man, woman or child is safe with the existing police arrangements. As to the Marshal being an Irishman he had seen mean Irishmen, mean Englishmen and mean Americans. He said the people of Portland desired the passage of the bill

The bill was passed by the following vote

Ayes—Messrs Alexander, Amis, Burnett, Caldwell, Hunter, Comegys, Calloway, Carlisle, Drain, Dorris, De Shiel, Elkins, Fulton, Grant, Helm, Hunter, McLain, Monkers, Ostrander, Porter, Rader, Shuck, Savage, Thompson, Townsend, Wells, Waldron and the Speaker—29

Noes—Messrs Apperson, Case, Dunbar, Davenport, Earhart, Holmes, Hare, Lockhart, Miller, Fay, O'Regan, Quimby, Starkweather and Whalley—13

At [illegible] P M the House adjourned

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The Bill of Beck & Waldman passed the Senate and will go through every house that they have the best stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, which will be sold cheaper than that of any other house. Call and judge for yourself.

Then get a new suit and let Winter go in

FOUND AT LAST.—A remedy that not only relieves but cures Consumption and its numerous satellites which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, colds, influenza, Bronchitis, &c. This remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

FATAL TO THE TEETH are all acrid preparations. They may bleach them for a time, but they as surely loosen and destroy it. The mild, fragrant balsamic and preservative SOZODONT, impregnated with the SAPONIA of the famous tropical Soap Tree, of Chili, is the only absolutely safe article of its kind in the market, and protects the Teeth from all destructive influences, as well as keeps them free from tartar.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," handy and useful.

A GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—A. F. Charlick, a printer in the office of the Ohio Weekly Clarion, writes to the proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS as follows:

"Three months ago I was the mere shadow of a man and so debilitated that my limbs shook under me while at work. The compositor at the next case said to me one day, 'Andrew, you need a tonic; that's what's the matter,' and there's no tonic that was ever got up equal to PLANTATION BITTERS. Try 'em. I have tried 'em and you are at liberty to state (referring to me for confirmation) that they have restored my health and I believe saved my life."

THAT ENEMY OF MANKIND, Consumption, can be cured, but it is far better to prevent the cruel disease from fastening itself on the system by the timely use of a remedy such as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY affords.

Let us Discuss the Great Question
What is the most important of all earthly blessings, in the estimation of every intelligent human being?
Clearly it is Health, for soundness of body and mind is essential to the enjoyment of all the other good gifts of Providence.
How then shall those who possess this inestimable treasure endeavor to preserve it, and how shall those who have lost it seek to receive it?
These questions have been asked in all ages, but never have they been as satisfactorily responded to as at the present day, and the answers which common sense, enlightened by science and experience gives to them in the Nineteenth Century may be briefly stated thus:
To protect the system against all influences that tend to generate disease, there is nothing like invigoration.
To re-establish the health on a firm basis when it has been lost by imprudence or any other cause the system must be simultaneously strengthened, regulated and purified.
The ends can only be attained through the agency of a preparation which [illegible] the attributes of a [illegible] corrective [illegible] blood depurent and an aperient.
All these essentials are effectually blended in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. They contain nothing irritating or inflammatory. The juices and extracts of [illegible] herbs, roots and barks are their sole medicinal ingredients, and these are rendered diffusible by combination with the spirituous essence of rye, the purest of all [illegible] stimulants.
The weak and feeble, and especially those suffering from biliousness, indigestion and nervousness absolutely require the renovating aid of this powerful tonic and alterative during the heated term, and cannot prudently dispense with its use for a single day. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Bismarck

[illegible]

Count Bismarck's [illegible], thinks the Pall Mall Gazette, is as remarkable as his boldness. It is not only careless that his opinions and determinations should be known—he seems anxious to make them public. A long conversation between this very capable Minister and a correspondent of the Standard was published on Sept. [illegible] and we have no doubt whatever that in the following passage we have a full and faithful revelation of the [illegible] that Bismarck and Germany are resolved [illegible] and the reasons which determine that [illegible]: "The present is the twenty-fifth time in the space of a hundred years that France has made war on Germany on some pretext or other. Now at least, our terrible disease of divided unity being cured, we have contrived, by the help of the hand of God, to beat her down. It is idle to hope to propitiate her. She would never forgive us for beating her, even if we offered the easiest terms in the world, and forebore from asking for the expenses of the war. She could not forgive you for Waterloo, and it was only by accident that she did not make war upon you on account of it. She could not forgive Sadowa, though it was not fought against her, and she will never forgive Sedan. She must therefore be made harmless. We must have Strasburg, and we must have Metz, even if in the latter case we hold merely the garrison, and whatever else is necessary to improve our strategic position against attack from her. We do not want the territory as territory, but as a glacis between her and us. At the commencement of this war, had the Emperor displayed energy, he might have attacked Southern Germany before we could have done anything. Why he did not do it we do not know to this day. He had an army of 150,000 men, ready to be moved in a day. We cannot do that—we are too poor. But France can afford it, having missed doing the energetic and daring thing once, she would know better next time, and would do it if we do not take precautions and make it impossible by improving our frontier. Had the attack been made at once on South Germany, we should have lost its assistance, not because the South Germans are not well-disposed, but because they would have been crushed. The late King of Wurtemburg said to me one day, 'You are always very frank with me; I will be frank with you. If the French were to pounce upon my people, and I were eating a soldier's bread in your camp, how should I feel? My people, oppressed with exactions, would beg of me to come home and make terms with the conquerors. The shirt is nearer to the skin than the coat, and I should have to do it.' Those were the words of the late King of Wurtemberg to me, and they describe the situation such as it must always remain if we do not make ourselves strong against French attack on that side. That is why we must have Strasburg, and an improved frontier. We will fight ten years sooner than not obtain this necessary security. "When the terms of peace come to be discussed," adds the Gazette, "we doubt whether it will be found easier to turn Germany from this determination than to answer the arguments by which Count Bismarck vindicates it. We also quote another passage from the same conversation, as illustrating still further the attitude of Count Bismarck's very candid mind. "M. Favre is anxious to know if I shall receive communications from him, and if it will be possible to open negotiations for peace on the basis of the integrity of the French territory. To the first question I can only say that everything that comes from or through Lord Granville will receive my best attention, though I cannot at present recognize M. Jules Favre as Minister of Foreign Affairs for France, or as capable of binding the nation, and, as to the second question, I am only surprised that he did not ask if Germany would not defray all the expenses of the war. The position of the French is worse than ever. Had the Emperor still been at the head of affairs, he and his system had friends in Austria, in Italy, and even in Russia. All are afraid to catch the contagion of Republicanism, and consequently the Republic, if it is to be, will be without friends." On the question of treating with the Republican Government the Count observed: "When I saw the Emperor after his surrendering himself a prisoner, I asked him if he was disposed to put forward any request for peace. The Emperor replied that he was not in a position to do so, for he had left a regular Government in Paris, with the Empress at its head. It is plain therefore, continued Count Bismarck, that, if France possesses any Government at all, it is still the Government of the Empress as Regent, or of the Emperor." When I asked if the flight of the Empress and of the Prince Imperial might not be regarded as an abdication, he said very positively he could not so construe it. The Empress had been forced to go by the gentlemen of the pavement, as the Corps Legislatif had been obliged to suspend its sittings; but the action of the gentlemen of the pavement was not legal. They could not make a Government. The question was, whom does the fleet still obey? Whom does the army shut up in Metz still obey? "Bazaine still recognizes the Emperor. If so, and if we choose to let him go to Paris, he and his army would be worth considerable more than the gentlemen of the pavement and the so-called Government. We do not wish to dictate to France her form of government; we have nothing to say to it. That is her affair." I pointed out that it would be extremely difficult for the French people at the present moment even to employ the means necessary for ascertaining the national will. "That is their look out," replied his Excellency, "we know what we want, and that is enough for us."

"The Catalogue of RUMSEY & CO., of Seneca Falls, embraces over 200 different styles and sizes of Lift and Force Pumps. They are now turning out 1,500 Pumps per week, which range in price from $3 00 to $100, employing 130 hands in the business. John A. Rumsey has recently patented an improved galvanized non corrosive cast Iron Pump, which is safe from rust. An improved Hand Fire Engine of great efficiency, is also on their list. The machinery in Rumsey & Co's Factory is of the most efficient kind, many of it being of the [illegible] invention, and is driven by an unfailing water power. They are now building a new factory, 84x42 feet, 4 stories. When this is completed they will increase their working force to 250 hands. NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified, that the Concert is postponed until

Monday, October 31st, 1870

Unexpected hindrances have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 19, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution so made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of gifts. They will be as elsewhere advertised, to wit: 625 gifts amounting in all to $[illegible] gold.

Tickets [illegible] out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers on the 1st November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d, 1870, at the office, No. 419 California Street, to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. Terms [illegible], sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations. Look at the Directory for 1868 and 1869. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible]

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Applications for ONE HUNDRED SHARES were made before the books were opened, and a large number of Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are designed for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expected increase of population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them), the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots, along the river front. The shares number 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after deducting the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $100 or $500 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole body of shareholders. It will be seen, therefore, that everything is co-operative, and all interests mutual. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other real shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property, by some chance, should be sold far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract of land must be judged by each for himself, but considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity, for the last year or two, it seems hardly possible for values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken [illegible] monopolies of shares. No person is [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the Association restricted in the same manner. The buyer of shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all [illegible] or they may pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] of [illegible] share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to his [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits derived from all sources. No officer of the [illegible] receives any pay for services except the [illegible] who gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 80 feet above the water. There is no part of the [illegible] row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest, undivided, with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible].

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes, and one [illegible] "Riverside," just south of East Portland—has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is still forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping, and the Wallamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H, which has already been described, with that on the east. The last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley, which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association propose to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
